As summer starts to wane and the cooler breezes start blowing in across the bay we realise that autumn is upon us. This change in temperature, humidity and fluctuations in weather usually means a need to change your skin care regime as well. It is the perfect time to reassess your current skin care programme, have a few revitalising in-salon treatments and just get your skin looking and feeling fresh and clear again. Then there is the ultra-relaxing body wrap and massage deal that has to be experienced to believe how great your body feels after all that pampering. But there are also fabulous offers on both micro-dermabrasion and skin smoothing peels to help you look years younger, a great lash extension special and ... and much, much more. This $65 session will change your mind about make-up forever. Mineral make-up is quick, provides amazing coverage, has a built in sunscreen and is absolutely inert. In other words it cannot attract bacteria, cannot clog your pores, cannot harm your skin.

In fact, in America it is not regarded as make-up rather marketed as skin care. Many of our clients who have already tried this incredible make-up have commented on how light it feels on their skin, yet gives wonderful coverage. Because it is a primarily a brush on make-up, it is so easy and fast to apply, blend and achieve a fabulous new look.

Annette's Beauty Tip
Everyone expects the winter months to be harsh on their skin with colder weather and windy conditions. But in reality by the time we reach the months of June and July our skin has already acclimatised fairly well. However, as autumn arrives our skin goes through a significant change after the heat of summer and consequently it has a tendency to dry quickly. We often see this as dry, flaky skin on our arms and legs but it actually happens all over the body. So now that autumn is upon us, it is really important to maintain good hydration of your skin to stop that dried out look from appearing. I turn to products that are going to maintain a moisture balance on my skin and the Pevonia range is ideal.

Peel Your Way to Brighter, Smoother and more Hydrated Skin.

Anyone who has experienced a clinical peel from an experienced therapist will know that it is not an uncomfortable treatment, nor that you will walk out of the salon all red and sore. Vitality uses mild Glycolic peels and soothing, moisturising masques so that your skin just feels plumped, super smooth and beautifully hydrated.
